Dear Judge Holwell:

I write respectfully to request an extension of the Government's time to answer the complaint in the above-referenced matter until Friday August 31, 2007. The current due date for the Government's answer is August 10, 2007. The Government seeks this extension of time in order to more fully investigate the events alleged in the complaint. This is the Government's first request for an extension. Plaintiff's counsel, Harold Chetrick, has consented to this request.
